

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

In supplementation of the remarks submitted December 29, 2005, Applicant now submits a Terminal Disclaimer with a correct assignment attached.

Through inadvertent error and in haste to meet the final deadline of December 29, 2005, Applicant, without deceptive intent and in good faith, submitted a Terminal Disclaimer signed by his representative and including an Assignment purporting to assign the referenced patent application from Ectium B.V. to Rasar Holding N. V. and that was completed on December 29, 2005. However, upon review, after filing the Response on December 29, 2005, it was discovered that the Assignment had been completed not by a representative of Ectium B.V. but by Rasar Holding N. V. Upon discovery of the error in the assignment, a corrected assignment was requested and completed by the authorized representative of Ectium B.V. on January 6, 2006. The assignment was immediately recorded and a copy of the assignment is attached with an additional and appropriate Terminal Disclaimer.

The previous error is sincerely regretted and since the error is now corrected, Applicant again requests a favorable consideration and allowance of the patent application.

Respectfully submitted,
